That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air-passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not be there your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, croup, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed us, you may depend upon. cow

TO JENNY.

Do I love you? Yes and no;
Jenny mine, 'tis hard to say.
For your charms, dear, come and go
In the most perplexing way.
When I wander at your feet,
"Jane, my Jane, my pretty Jane!"
Now, you are surpassing sweet;
Then, anon, supremely plain.

Jenny, this is odd and strange;
Jenny, why, O tell me why
Comes there such a grievous change
O'er your lip and in your eye?
Cheeks that had a peachlike bloom,
Like a kitchen maid's are red,
Features so refined, assume
Quite an aspect over fed.

Yet at other times you seem
Formed to conquer and enshare,
All that love, young love, can dream
Of the magically fair.
Then I wonder if some elf,
To Titania's lord akin,
Can present your other self,
As a baser kind of twin.

But it may be that my eyes,
Darkened by distemper's dew,
See a vision that belies
All the charms that made me woo.
Shall I love you? Yes and no;
With the fickleness of man,
While those charms, dear, come and go
I will love you now and then.

—L. F. Austin, in Temple Bar.

AN ANECDOTE OF GREELEY.

How the Fine Old Man Started on a Patriotic Rampage.

Horace Greeley, as is well known, was a very pronounced non-resistant, yet he was one of the most pugnacious men in the world.

A curious instance of this incongruous temperament and its result came under the writer's observation on one occasion, occasioning him some surprise.

It was the general opinion that the old fellow was a coward at heart, and made use of his non-resistant professions as a screen to protect himself from personal injury at the hands of an opponent.

It was a Sunday morning in New York at the very commencement of the war, just after the great Bull Run scare, and the Government authorities at Washington were frantically calling for troops. The Metropolitan Hotel, of New York, then the great up-town exchange, was filled by a motley crowd, drinking, smoking and discussing the situation of beleaguered Washington.

Among the crowd were several army officers in full uniform, smoking their cigars and criticising Lincoln as commander-in-chief in a sneering way, when a commotion occurred in the doorway, and Greeley, with his old felt hat on the back of his head, rushed through the crowd and up to the group of officers and addressed them somewhat after this style:

"Why are you loafing about here, you miserable cowards? Why are you not reporting yourselves at Washington? This is a resort for skulkers. Aren't you ashamed of yourselves?"

The biggest fellow of the group was terribly angry, and lifting his heavy sword, he thundered out:

"Repeat those words, old man, and I'll split your skull!"

Greeley threw off the old felt hat, exclaiming:

"Strike as soon as you please; I repeat what I have already said."

Every one present expected that the old man would be cut down; instead, the fellow turned on his heel, saying:

"Come away, boys, I won't strike the d——d lunatic."

Greeley gave them one contemptuous look, and took his departure.

SELF CONTROL.

Its Expression in the Use of the Hands.

There are few people who possess that absolute repose which marks the "Vere de Vere."

A person may be outwardly calm and self-possessed under all conditions and yet find a peculiar sustaining quality and moral support in some small article held in the hand. In this case a woman has the advantage over the sterner sex, as there are countless smelling bottles, bon bonnieres and the all powerful fan especially designed for the use of nervous feminine hands.

A man plays with his knife, fingers his watch chain or flutters his handkerchief, and there are few who quite know what to do with their hands when they are entirely unoccupied.

Lawyers are keen observers of human idiosyncracies and one of them in relating a story of a client gave as a point of interest the fact of the absolute repose and quiet of the client's hands. The case was important and the one most interested was a woman.

In talking the matter over with her the lawyer observed with surprise that she kept her hands empty and absolutely quiet. They were not even folded together, but lay in repose on her lap throughout the whole conversation.

The circumstance was an unusual one, as there are few who possess sufficient self control not to feel an increased sense of confidence and self assurance when the hands are supplied with some small article, which seems to render them less obtrusive and takes away any feeling of responsibility their owner may have regarding them.

HEBREW MILLIONAIRES.

The Way in Which They Have Made Their Money.

It is in finance rather than in trade, that the Hebrew millionaires have acquired most of their millions. They may have begun as peddlers or office boys, but when they scraped together a little capital they commenced to use it in the money market to make more.

It is worth noting, however, that Jewish speculators in the sense of mere gamblers on the stock market, are rare among the millionaires. The Seligmans, Wormsers and the rest have gained vast profits in stock speculation, it is true, but the foundations of their business are laid on a legitimate and sound banking basis.

Intrepid as the Jew is in taking chances, it is an instinct with him to have some force in reserve, while the average Gentile speculator will gamble away his last dollar, and that of other people entrusted to him, going fairly mad under the excitement of the act.—Boston Home Journal.

PLATFORM AND RESOLUTIONS

The following platform and resolutions were adopted by the Republican State Convention, which convened at Winnemucca on the 15th instant:

The Republicans of the State of Nevada, in Convention assembled, again express their loyalty to the principles of the Republican party, which have made this country so great and prosperous during the last quarter of a century.

RESOLVED, That the question of a sufficient supply of circulating medium to maintain a permanent range of the price of labor and property is the most important political question awaiting solution by the American people.

That a diminishing quantity of money reduces the price of labor and property, enriches the creditor, impoverishes the debtor, and paralyzes industry and enterprise.

That the present financial system of the United States, which increases or diminishes the circulating medium at the pleasure of the manipulators of the national banks, without regard to the increase of population or the wants of the people, and which recognizes gold alone as the standard of value, and places in the hands of the Treasury Department all the revenue of the Government to speculate with in bonds and loan to the national banks without interest, is subversive of the rights of the people, oppressive, unjust and should be repudiated.

That a financial policy whereby both gold and silver shall form the basis of circulation, whether the money used by the people be coin, or coin certificates redeemable in coin, or both, as convenience may require, is imperatively demanded.

That the attempt to substitute national bank notes, costing the Government millions of dollars annually, for free silver, costing nothing, is an outrage upon the people; that the money ring or trust, which has usurped the sovereign power of the Government to issue money, and which has fraudulently demonetized silver and seized the revenues of the Government for private speculation, shocks the moral sense of the people and destroys respect for government and law. We demand that this ring or trust be destroyed, and equal rights be restored to all the people.

We charge that President Cleveland is the willing tool or agent of a powerful money ring, which fattens on the subsidies of the Government, makes war on silver issues its paper currency at the expense of the Government, borrows the revenues raised by taxation and uses them without the payment of interest, contracts the currency to enhance the value of bonds, and enriches usurers, while it depresses the price of labor and property.

That we favor the nomination of no man for President who is personally interested in national banks or the bonded indebtedness of the United States, but we demand a candidate who is free to do justice to all the people of the country—the poor as well as the rich.

That the trick of the President and his advisers by which they prevented a vote in the House of Representatives on the Beck silver amendment to the Bond Purchase bill, equals the villainy of the secret and fraudulent demonetization of silver in 1873.

II.

RESOLVED, That we are in favor of the protection of home industry, and that the laborers of this country have a right to all the work required to supply the people of the United States, and that we are in favor of high wages, and to such a tariff will protect the wage-workers from competition with the cheap labor of other lands.

RESOLVED, That the policy of the Government should be inaugurated and established by the people through their representatives in both Houses of Congress, and not by the President or money trust, of which he, either as agent or head, is most active in defending.

III.

We charge President Cleveland with violating every promise he made in favor of civil service reform, with crippling the mail service, with refusing to sign necessary bills for the improvement of rivers and harbors, with using the power of his administration to prevent appropriations for navy and coast defenses, with attempting to destroy the protective tariff, with courting the good will of other nations at the expense of the citizens of the United States, and with joining the foreign bondholders to demonetize silver and destroy the industries of his own country, and for the reduction of the wages of the Mint employes at Carson, for closing the Carson Mint when it was not only self-sustaining but a source of revenue to the Government, for his contemptuous vetoes of bills for the relief of disabled soldiers and sailors, and for failing to construct the Government building at Carson as required by law.

IV.

We are in favor of the absolute exclusion of Chinese, and of the restriction of immigration by which the overcrowded condition of the labor market is made worse, and we favor legislation by which a revision of our naturalization and land laws may be accomplished.

V.

We demand in behalf of our various industries the retention of the duties on lead, borax, soda, hides and leather, and to restore the tariff of 1867 on wool.

VI.

RESOLVED, That we recognize the right of labor to organize for its lawful protection.

VII.

We favor the appropriations by Congress for hydrographical and topographical surveys in this State, to the end that the waste waters may be preserved for the purpose of irrigation.

VIII.

We endorse the wise and conservative administration of Governor Stevenson, and we heartily commend the able efforts of Senators Jones and Stewart and Representative Woodburn in behalf of the interests of this State.

IX.

We favor the granting to Nevada of all Government land within the State for the purpose of providing means for irrigation and other improvements.

X.

We favor the reduction of the Treasury surplus by the payment of pensions to Union soldiers, their widows and orphans, the improvement of rivers and harbors, the building of defenses for the sea coast, the erection of public buildings, the creation of a navy, the purchase of bonds and the repeal of the internal revenue laws taxing tobacco.

XI.

It is the duty of this State to maintain free, non-sectarian schools in the rural and sparsely settled districts, as well as in towns and thickly populated sections, and that such division of the school money shall be made as will furnish the means of education to all children of the State.

XII.

We are in favor of reopening the Carson Mint for coinage and raising the wages of its employes to the standard paid by the last administration.

XIII.

We demand the restoration of the mail service in this State to the efficiency maintained by the last Republican [illegible]

FOR PRESIDENT,
BENJAMIN HARRISON,
Of Indiana.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
LEVI P. MORTON,
Of New York.

Tuesday..... October 23, 1888

FROM Maine to the Gulf of California, and from Puget Sound to Key West there is harmony in the Republican ranks everywhere, and when the party that was unanimous against slavery, and unanimous against disruption of the Union, and that is unanimous against free trade, and unanimous against Grover Cleveland and his sham reform—when this unanimous Republican party's turn comes to speak next month, somebody's going to hear something worth listening to. It's a way the unanimous Republican party has.

THE way to break up the Solid South is to elect Harrison and Morton. If Cleveland gets another term, Bourbon Democracy will maintain its sway. If Harrison be chosen, the young, the enterprising, the well reconstructed, the protection, the American voters of the new and progressive South will be encouraged to assert themselves.

WE are told that the reduction in the Mills bill from 27 to 42 per cent. is a little thing. Does anybody believe the whole Democratic chances are staked on a little thing? Once in the right direction by popular approval, the party of Mills, Carlisle and Cleveland will take as long a step as they like.

FOR the reason that the present status of the Mills bill gives him no opportunity—in case of his election—to support it, Mr. Cassidy thinks he would be the proper man to represent Nevada's wool interests in the next session of Congress.

FREE trade is no experiment in America. We've tried it, and it didn't work. Germany tried it, and it didn't work. Why not be guided by experience? Business men are so guided; and isn't public business to be conducted on business principles?

WORKINGMEN are studying the tariff question. This is quite enough. If workingmen will simply look into the matter, and not follow blind prejudice, they will soon be convinced that protection is the right policy. This isn't theory. It is experience.

THE Republican party has raised the nation from bankruptcy to opulence, and secured for our public credit the faith of the financial world. This was done under protection, and General Harrison helped to do it.

THE canvass on the Republican side has been a steadily growing one. Can't you help to make it grow more? There is still some time remaining. Individual effort is a great factor.

FIGURES furnished by a Democratic Cabinet officer show that, since 1860, under a protective tariff, wages in this country have advanced over 39 per cent. Protection don't protect, eh?

WHAT this nation is under protection every American knows. What it would be under free trade the wisest man can only conjecture. Is the hope of gain worth the risk of loss.

Civil Service Arraigned.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—A sensational incident happened to-day at the funeral services of C. S. Squires, who was Assistant Postmaster at Chicago for nineteen years, after having worked his way up from errand boy in the postal service. Mr. Squires was reduced to the chief clerkship, and subsequently suspended. His friends claim that he died of a broken heart.

The funeral took place with high Masonic honors in the Immanuel Baptist Church, one of the most prominent congregations in the city. The church was crowded to overflowing. Dr. Lorimer pronounced the eulogy, and his eloquence had already greatly wrought up the audience, when he said: "I see in the dead before me the arraignment of civil service. I think as he lies there that he declares the failure of the system. Our ideal is still beyond our intellect, nor will justice and party prevail in the civil service until preferment shall be given upon a scale of talent and fitness."

There was a moment of silence and the big church rang with an outburst of applause. Knights Templar in regalia and plain business men alike excitedly shouted approval, notwithstanding the sacred surroundings and presence of the dead. Dr. Lorimer besought the Order, saying: "Not here; not here," but adding: "Had this loving and lovable man his just deserts, he would still be actively among us, or we would have been mourning for the dead Postmaster of Chicago, and not a clerk of the registry department."

So intense was the agitation of the audience that it was with difficulty that the church could be cleared.

Parnellites Hopeful.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—The Special Judicial Commission for the trial of the Times' charges against Parnell and sixty-four Irish members of Parliament resumed its sittings in the Probate Court room this morning before a great audience. Sir Richard Webster appeared for the Times and the Government and Sir Charles Russel for Parnell and his colleagues. Parnell came in early. He is in good health, but was slightly pale.

Webster cautiously opened the case for the prosecution. He said the representatives of the Times had not the authorities to prove the truth of the charges. It was absurd for him to declare that when the Times made its charges it was in possession of legal proof of the same. The accusations which had been formulated rested to a certain extent upon articles, editorial and reportorial, in the Irish World, United Ireland and the Freeman's Journal.

The prosecution is considered very weak. The friends of the Times, however, reply they are not ready to show their hand just yet, that it is not the policy of the Times to put Parnellites in possession of its testimony until the proper time.

Webster praised the Times' public spirit and defended its malicious accusations. He then proceeded to give an outline of the Fenian movement.

From the action of the Court, impartial as it was on the preliminary opening day, both sides feel the Commission proposes to administer justice. It is this atmosphere of impartially, it is claimed, that makes the Times people careful and the Parnellites hopeful.

Will Soon Resign.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—It is reported that Civil Service Commissioner Edgerton will shortly tender his resignation. The information reaches here from Indiana, where Mr. Edgerton has been spending the past two months. The Commissioner will resign, it is said, in order to give attention to his private affairs, which have been more or less neglected since he came to Washington. His resignation will leave two vacancies on the Board of Civil Service Commissioners, the other being caused by the promotion of Mr. Oberly, who was recently placed at the head of the Indian Bureau.

Brotherhood of Railroad Brakemen.

COLUMBUS (O.), Oct. 22.—The Brotherhood of Railroad Brakemen are considering a new constitution and by-laws. Several important changes have been made. The office of Grand Organizer and Instructor is to be abolished, and the offices of First, Second and Third Vice Grand Master created. Each of these will be organizers and instructors, and be assigned to districts. Vice Grand Master Eatens and Grand Organizer Foster will fill the first two places, and the third will be filled by election.

The Socialists of New York have lately made National, State and municipal nominations. They also made nominations for Congressmen and Assemblymen.

In conformity with law, Mexican officials are parading the streets of the Capital, halting at the street corners, and posting a decree declaring that Diaz has been re-elected.

The King and Queen of Italy have presented the Empress of Germany with a silver casket containing a diamond necklace, bracelets and pearl earrings, set in Roman gold by Castellar.

Chief Justice Fuller of the United States Supreme Court rendered his first decision yesterday, which was that Pennsylvania has no right to tax a telegraph company on messages sent out of the State.

Fearful Destruction of Life.

ROME, Oct 22.—A dispatch from Potensca says ten cars of a train crowded with excursionists returning from the Naples fetes were crushed by a landslide. The telegraph line being broken, help was delayed two hours. Seventy injured passengers and ninety corpses have been taken from the wreck. There are still two cars buried, and it is certain the list of dead will be increased.

A later dispatch from Potensca says there were 400 passengers on the train which was crushed by the landslide. One hundred and fifty of the dead and wounded have been identified. Many of the victims are unknown. Scores continue to be unearthed. The work is impeded by the cold and snow. Several hundred headless and armless corpses have been found in the neighboring river. A young priest was buried two hours by mistake, and when extricated it was found that his hair had turned white.

A Young Murderer.

FORT RIPLEY, Minn., Oct. 22.—Frank Randall, a 16-year-old boy, has been arrested for the murder of an inoffensive German named Ziegler, who disappeared several days ago. Randall's cousin, John Sumner, confessed that he and Randall were out hunting when the latter, who had a grudge against Ziegler, went to the bank of the river and called the German, who was on the opposite side, to come across, as a man wanted to see him. When Ziegler was half-way across in a boat Randall shot him with a rifle, killing him. The body fell into the river. Sumner kept quiet until yesterday, as he claims Randall threatened to kill him if he told. Randall will not talk.

His Work About Done.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—John G. Whittier, in a letter to the Secretary of the Howard Association of London regarding the Society's services, says: "I like practical Christianity and true following of the Master. I weary of creeds and dogmas more and more and more. I love the old ways of Greetlet and Wolman, but I have no controversy with others. I am now in feeble health. My work is done. I wish it were better done, but I trust and am thankful that I cannot glory in myself. My sole trust is in the goodness of God."

Not Allowed to Land.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Acting Secretary Thompson has received a telegram from the Collector of Customs of San Francisco asking if Chinese laborers arriving from China in transit for either Panama or across territory of the United States to Cuba can be landed at San Francisco, and if so, how are they to be guarded.

Secretary Thompson telegraphed to-day in reply that "Chinese laborers cannot land on United States territory whether for transit to foreign countries or otherwise."

Decided to Shut Down.

BOSTON, Oct. 22.—The Norway Steel & Iron Company has decided to wind up its affairs, close its works and go out of business altogether. Fully 500 men will be thrown out of work. The business of the company consists of rolling iron, steel, boiler-plates, etc. The concern is well known throughout the country because of its extensive dealing in Swedish iron.

An Objectionable Official.

PUEBLO, Col., Oct. 22.—The switchmen and yardmen of the Denver & Rio Grande at this point struck this morning. Freight business is greatly interfered with. The cause is said to be a grievance the men have against the superintendent of the train service. They ask for his removal.

If mothers studied their best interests they would find that Dr. Henley's Dandelion Tonic is the best household remedy. Many of the ills peculiar to females could be avoided by its use. It is as pleasant to take as a glass of wine. Sold by Wm. Pinniger.

Mayo Greenlaw, dentist, Virginia street.

Go to Lange & Schmitt for the best line of pocket cutlery.

A look into Fraser's Virginia-street market will convince you that he deals in no second-class meats.

C. J. Brookins is in daily receipt of every variety of the best California table grapes. Fresh taffy daily manufactured.

The reason people like to go to J. J. Becker's for a glass of beer is that he knows how to handle that temperance beverage.

In the selection of his Reno agent John Wieland has shown that he knows the kind of a man to introduce his beer into this State.

There is no better brand of tobacco in the market than Lorillard's, and it can be found at C. A. Thurston's. Try his five and ten-cent cigars.

All brands of the best California wines can always be found at the Granite saloon; also, as fine a quality of lager as you ever placed under your vest.

Now that we have in town an unmistakable case of small pox, every man, woman and child should, as a matter of precaution, wear one of Dr. Gunn's Carbolic Chest Pads. They hang about the neck and the heat of the body slowly vaporizes the materials. This vapor permeates the clothing and destroys the germs of contagion. For sale by C. M. Fassett.

Cattle Shipments.

Twelve cars of beef cattle loaded at Halleck for Horn & Chapman, and nine cars from the same place, shipped by William Dunphy, were unloaded here last evening and forwarded to San Francisco this morning.

Attention, Republicans!

There will be a candidates' meeting at the following named precincts on the dates given below: Wadsworth, Thursday, October 25th; Verdi, Saturday, October 27th; Glendale, Monday, October 29th; Reno, Saturday, November 3d.

A Carload of Fowls.

A car freighted with chickens, ducks and geese, from Kansas, en route to San Francisco, passed through Reno this morning. It was claimed that there were 5,000 of the feathered bipeds on the car.

A Commendable Movement.

A workingmen's society formed in Detroit ten years ago to care for girls out of employment and secure situations has just dedicated a magnificent building.

PERSONAL.

E. W. Crutcher came in from Paradise Valley last evening.

Sheriff Williams of Douglas county was in town last evening.

Irving Ayers, the stock man, returned this morning from California.

John Mallon and Fred Boegle of Virginia City returned from the Bay this morning.

James Sutcliffe, wife and daughter of Pyramid paid the GAZETTE office a visit to-day.

Alf. Chartz, the well-known Comstock stenographer, is making bird-tracks and pot-hooks at Bridgeport for the Bulwer-Standard litigants.

The Truckee Electric Light Company.

The Republican says: The Truckee Electric Light and Power Company has now fully organized and incorporated. By-laws have been adopted and the following officers chosen: T. B. Whitney, President; J. F. Moody, Vice-President; W. H. Kruger, Treasurer; C. F. McGlashan, Secretary and Superintendent. Directors—Jos. Marzen, Jr., G. W. Curless, W. P. Moss, W. H. Hurd and J. L. Lewison. The success of the company seems to be assured, as the lights already contracted for will yield a revenue of $450 monthly, and it is expected that it will pay 1½ per cent. per month interest on the investment.

A Family of Educators.

The Belmont Courier of the 20th says: "Hon. John H. Brown, brother of Professor LeRoy D. Brown, President of the Nevada State University, arrived in Belmont on the 12th inst. He has been engaged as teacher of the Belmont public school by the Board of Trustees of District No. 1. He has taught school for many years. Judge Brown was given a first-grade certificate by the Board of Examiners of his county in Ohio. He also received a first-grade certificate from the Board of Examiners of Washoe county, Nev., which is indorsed by the State School Board. Judge Brown is a highly educated man, and was Probate Judge in Ohio for six years."

"A Tin Soldier."

Charlie Reed, the "Old Sport" of Hoyt's "A Rag Baby," this season, was formerly the well-known minstrel of the Pacific Slope, and was the junior partner of Billy Emmerson, in what was known as Emerson & Reed's Minstrels, which had such a long run in San Francisco a few seasons ago. Since then he has been equally successful as a white face comedian, and is a general favorite in almost every city in the Union. Mr. Hoyt thinks he has a great prize in him. This excellent company will appear in "A Tin Soldier" at McKissick's Opera House next Thursday evening. Secure your seats.

A Merited Testimonial.

David H. Salas of Venezuela will shortly receive from the State Department at Washington a handsome silver cup bearing the following inscription: "Presented by the President of the United States of America to David H. Salas in recognition of his humanity and generosity in rescuing and subsisting the crew of the American schooner Cohannet, wrecked near Cumana, Venezuela, in 1877." Mr. Salas is a wealthy man, and for a long time entertained the crew of the Cohannet, at a cost of several thousand dollars, which he would not let the United States Government repay.

The Carson Mint.

The Carson Appeal is informed by the Chaplain of the Mint that orders have been received from Washington directing the monthly coinage of $50,000 of five, and $100,000 of ten-dollar greenbacks. The coinage of Cleveland medals has been suspended by order of the Civil Service Commission and the Secretary of the Smithsonian Institute.

The Champion Sprinter.

Harry Bethune, who threw a running race in favor of W. R. Musgrove of Carson City here about a year ago, and left some of his would-be backers, who had a "sure thing of it," in the lurch, was recently declared to be the champion American sprinter at St. Louis. While in training on the Comstock and here he passed under an assumed name.

Showed His Gratitude.

The Virginia Chronicle says: While at Hawthorne last week Frank Golden left a pocketbook containing checks and banknotes valued at $10,000 under the pillow of a lodging-house bed, where he slept the night before. The proprietress of the house found the pocketbook and returned it to the owner, who presented her with a costly diamond ring.

Must go Upstairs.

Under a law passed by the last Legislature, which provides that in counties polling over 1,500 votes gambling games shall be dealt only in the second stories, the sports of Reno will undoubtedly be obliged to climb upstairs, as this county is morally certain to cast more than the above limit.

Good for Weak Eyes.

Last evening a GAZETTE reporter was shown a gold specimen which reminded him of the early fifties when mining at Downieville. The nugget was taken from a claim on the Middle Feather river, in Plumas county, Cal., and was worth about $70.

Fruit and Wool Receipts.

Large quantities of apples are being received from Honey Lake Valley over the N. C. & O. railroad, 826 boxes having arrived Saturday. Wool is also coming in quite freely over the same road.

A Stabbing Hermit.

The Carson Tribune of last evening says: Word comes from Genoa that Baron Von Voight, the Woodfords hermit, stabbed Sam Rice, the hotel man, in the thigh on Saturday night last in a saloon of that town.

A Terrible Scourge.

Fifteen persons died of diptheria in one week, at Oxford Junction, Iowa, and numerous cases are developing daily.

THE COMING ECLIPSE.

Track of the Moons Shadow Through Eastern California and Nevada.

In General Irish's office is to be seen a map prepared by him to show the path of the total eclipse which is to occur on the 1st day of next January, at about one o'clock and fifty-four minutes P. M. The shadow of the moon will cross the western line of Nevada at the town of Verdi, and its breadth is so great that from Verdi north along the boundary for a distance of about 100 miles there will be total darkness of the eclipse. The central point of the moons shadow will cross the Western State line at a point 32 rods north of the 124th mile-post. The south edge of the moons shadow will pass about half-way between Reno and the highest point of Peavine mountain. Thus Reno will be just outside the shadow. The center of the path will be about six miles north of Winnemucca and 29½ miles north of Tuscarora. The south edge of the path will pass north of Wadsworth and south of Pyramid, Lovelocks and Humboldt House. The north edge of the path will pass north of Buffalo Meadows, Willow Point, Paradise Valley, Spring City, Willow Creek, Cornucopia and White Rock, and will pass ten miles south of Ft. McDermitt.

In California, Susanville will be 14½ miles north of the center of the shadow and Quincy three miles north of it. Nevada City will be thirteen miles north of the south line of the path. All the towns named are inside the shadow path, as are Loyalton, Oneida, Long Valley, Milford, and all the settlements about Honey lake. All places in or near the center of the path will be in darkness two minutes of time. All those at the edges of the shadow will see the sun momentarily eclipsed. The eclipse will begin at about 1:52 P. M. at Quincy, 1:53 at Honey Lake and 1:54 at Winnemucca. The shadow travels a northeast course across the State, leaving it at the northeast corner.

SUSCEPTIBLE OF EDUCATION.

The Value of Intelligence in Horses.

The Stock Growers Journal says: The horse knows what we teach him. Ordinarily the animal is susceptible of a considerable degree of education. But naturally horses differ in intelligence. We believe we never saw a horse that was so stupid that it could not be trained into reasonable efficiency and responsiveness to teaching. But superior intelligence in the horse is valuable, and yet ordinarily it is not taken into consideration. When a man buys a horse he will likely consider everything except the matter of intelligence. In common work intelligence is valuable and in breeding it should always be taken into consideration. The eye of the animal will tell a great deal as to the intelligence of the creature. A dull, sleepy eye suggests sluggishness of "intellect." A bright eye suggests the contrary. Some of the large breeds of horses have been called "fools." It is an error, however. The draft horses are as bright as any horse. But the expression shows that while the great mass of people perhaps never estimate the value of superior intelligence, some do prize it.

A Desirable Population.

Our Norwegian, Swede and Scandinavian population is an important part of the great West. They are in every trade. Of the Scandinavians, Harper's Weekly says: They are the pioneers of the later days, and, going to the extreme western limits of civilization, open up for permanent settlement the barren portions of our country. Nearly all the land along the rivers and lakes of Dakota has been taken up by the Scandinavians. In the older Western settlements they are well-to-do farmers, living in good, substantial houses and owning large herds of cattle. It is said that you can travel 300 miles through Wisconsin, from Lacrosse into Southern Minnesota and Northern Iowa, from one Scandinavian farm to another. The magnificence of opportunity that presents itself in our country to the Scandinavians is fully appreciated.

Sage Hen Station Burned.

Last Thursday evening the building situated on the Sierra Valley road between Truckee and Sage Hen Creek was burned to the ground. Nothing was saved except a keg of beer and a trunk. The fire is said to have originatek from a spark or defective stove pipe. The property consisted of a dwelling house and barn, and a quantity of furniture in the house and a small stock of liquors and cigars. The property was owned by Stewart McKay and was occupied by J. B. Ferris, who kept the place for the accommodation of travelers and teamsters. The loss was about $1,500, and so far as can be learned there was no insurance.

To Take the Place of Explosives.

It has been proposed to do away with the use of explosives in mines where their use is attended with danger, and substitute the lately invented cartridge, one portion of which is filled with a mixture of finely divided zinc, and zinc oxide, which collects in the condenser of the zinc retort, while the other part is filled with diluted sulphuric acid. According to the requirements in this case, the cartridge is put in its intended place, and then, by suitable mechanism, the acid is allowed to flow into the zinc. Hydrogen is then evolved, and by its expansive force the rock is broken down without combustion or violent explosion.

The Richest Mine in the World.

The richest mine in Australia, if not in the world, is said to be the Mount Morgan of Queensland. One of the Rothchilds once offered £19,000,000 for it, and the offer was refused. Its value is variously estimated at from $60,000,000 to $500,000,000.

Tecumseh Indignant.

The display of Rebel flags on the occasion of the unveiling of a monument to General Pickett at Richmond, Va., week before last, when Union veterans were present, has called out an indignant letter from General Sherman.

Death of Mrs. Coats.

The death of Mrs. M. T. Coats yesterday morning was quite unexpected, although she had been suffering for some time with a wen on her neck. Her sudden taking off was a terrible shock to her husband and children. Deceased had lived many years in this county, her youngest son, Schuyler, having been born in this valley, and she was highly respected and much beloved by all who enjoyed her acquaintance. She leaves a husband, two sons and two daughters to mourn her unexpected taking off. Her eldest daughter, Mrs Hansen, is expected to arrive from Esmeralda county this evening, having been advised by telegraph of her mother's death. The other daughter, Mrs. Charles Hill, and two sons reside in Reno, and the survivors all have the warmest sympathy of a large circle of friends in their terrible bereavement. The funeral will take place from the residence to-morrow (Wednesday) at 2 o'clock P. M.

A Birth Endowment Scheme.

Minneapolis is an enterprising town. It has reduced the business of insurance to an art. A company has just been started there that offers a premium on the birth of every child in the families of those who hold its certificates of membership. In short, Minneapolis is to be credited with a "birth endowment scheme."

For First Place.

A great amount of political engineering will be done by friends of candidates to secure for their man the first place on the ticket, and the best man will probably secure the coveted place. Then, if indorsed by the majority of the people, the election is assured. Electric Bitters has been put to the front, its merits passed upon, has been indorsed, and unanimously given the first place, among remedies peculiarly adapted to the relief and cure of all diseases of the kidneys, liver and stomach. Electric Bitters, being guaranteed, is a safe investment. Price 50 cents and $1 a bottle at Hodgkinson's drug store.

I shall always feel grateful to you." Sold by Wm. Pinniger.

Annihilating a Multiform Disease.

Miasmatic, or malarial, disease has many forms. Physicians have, for the sake of convenience, and for the purpose of indicating its most strongly marked forms, subdivided it into intermittent and bilious remittent fever, dumb ague and ague cake. But it presents an infinite variety of symptoms in different individuals. Be these symptoms what they will, always remember that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will annihilate them at the outset, and prevent their recurrence. A review of the proofs would convince anyone of the fact. This, however, is impossible because they are too numerous, and unnecessary because the effects of this grand anti-malarial specific are a matter of common knowledge. No less familiar to the public are its remedial and preventive effects in bilious attacks, constipation, dyspepsia, incipient rheumatism, debilty and kidney troubles. It is, moreover, an excellent appetizer and tonic nervine.

"My Wife is a Terror,"

Said a mild-tempered man in our hearing. "She snaps and snarls, spanks her children, and finds fault continually. I can't bear it any longer." Don't be too severe on her, my friend; you little realize her sufferings. She has lost her former sweet disposition, and ill-health is the cause. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will make her well. For female diseases, functional derangements, bearing-down pains, and the long list of ills that render women miserable, no medicine can compare with this. It is the only medicine for woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, to give satisfaction in every case, or money refunded. See guarantee printed on bottle wrapper.

For all derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels take Dr. Pierce's Pellets, or Anti-Bilious Granules.

Their Business Booming.

Probably no one thing has caused such a general revival of trade at Hodgkinson's drug store as their giving away to their customers of so many free trial bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their trade is simply enormous in this very valuable article from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints. Coughs, colds, asthma, Bronchitis, croup, and all throat and lung diseases quickly cured. You can test it before buying by getting a trial bottle free, larger size $1. Every bottle warranted.

INDEPENDENCE, Oregon, December 13.—Both myself and wife have been for some years afflicted with disease of the kidneys, and had tried many remedies without obtaining any permanent relief. About three months ago we were induced to try a package of the Oregon Kidney Tea, which has apparently entirely cured both of us, as since taking it two weeks we have felt no symptoms of the disease. We can heartily recommend it to others similarly afflicted, as we believe it will do all that is claimed for it.

It is useless to attempt the cure of any disorder if the blood is allowed to remain impure. Neuralgia and rheumatism are traceable to a disordered condition of the blood, and in numberless cases have been cured by taking a few doses of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Why people will continue to suffer from day to day, constantly complaining to their friends of pain in the back and loins, and with every symptom of the terrible scourge, Bright's disease, staring them in the face, is certainly a mystery when they might be made strong, healthy and happy by using Oregon Kidney Tea. It has wonderful medicinal properties, and if given a fair trial will prove a boon to those afflicted with disorders of the kidney or urinary organs. Sold by Wm. Pinniger.

The experience of years furnishes the most convincing evidence that thousands of lives are annually saved by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It speedily cures all affections of the throat, bronchial tubes and lungs.

PIOUS LITERARY WOMEN.

DISTINGUISHED FEMALE WRITERS WHO STAND BY THE CREED.

Harriet Beecher Stowe Writes a Letter Embodying Her Religious Opinions—Rose Terry Cook, Marion Harland, Louise Chandler Moulton and Mary J. Holmes State Their Views on the Subject of Greatest Concern.

(Copyright 1888.)

At a gathering of a literary kind in New York last spring, the conversation fell upon the subject of religion and the various beliefs held by people whom we individually knew. It was remarked that women were religious as long as they were domestic, but that the moment they had a career outside of their home, they became agnostics, free thinkers or something else as radical.

It was the opinion of several of the talkers that women writers were almost wholly independent of creeds and doctrines, and few—if any of them—were church members. "What was once true of the theatrical profession exclusively is now true of the literary one," was asserted by a noted newspaper editor, and his conclusion was approved by his listeners.

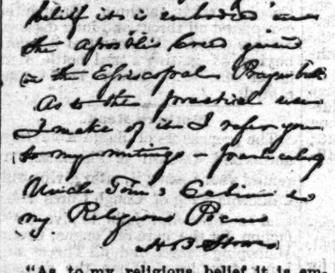
"Then a professional life is a misfortune rather than a blessing for women, you think?" queried a doubter.

"On the contrary I think it is desirable because it frees them from the bigotry and narrowness of the church and renders them the delightful companions they are," was replied.

"But the facts are that literary women are almost universally religious, whatever may be said of professionals in other fields of work," urged another. This was dissented from, and finally there was an admission made that it was difficult to tell from anybody's writings what their private opinions were.

The subject interested me beyond the hour and subsequently I wrote to various writers to know their religious views. The replies were of so great value as evidence of the fervent faith of women-writers that they are given to the public.

To the oldest and foremost among American novelists, Harriet Beecher Stowe, I wrote for an expression of her beliefs, religiously, and had for answer the following:



"As to my religious belief it is embodied in the Apostles' Creed given in the Episcopal Prayer-book. As to the practical use I make of it I refer you to my writings—particularly 'Uncle Tom's Cabin' and my religious poems. I have all my life sincerely endeavored to mould my life in accordance with these beliefs."

Nothing so terse and compact has come in response to the request made, and the characteristics of the woman are expressed in its phraseology.

Rose Terry Cooke, the poet and novelist, says of her religious views:

"I have been a member of the Congretional Church since 1848, until this last summer. I joined the Episcopal Church because my husband preferred that form of worship. You will find my faith embodied in the Apostles' Creed. I could never have lived through my troubled life without that earnest belief. I could not look forward to death under any other prospect with the least courage. I desire to record here that I have found the only peace, and help, and strength of my life in the gospel of Christ; and that I believe there is no hope in this world or the next that does not spring from that gospel."

Marion Harland, wife of a minister, and as widely known in her church and Sunday school work as in her social circle, says:

"So far as my religious views go, I am a thorough churchwoman; a believer in the Bible as the Word of God; the only sure rule of faith, and practice, and guide to Heaven. I recite the Apostles' Creed sincerely and devoutly, even the clause touching the resurrection of that which is sown a natural body and will be raised a spiritual body, bearing the same relation to the worn-out casket laid away in the earth that Easter lilies bear to the perished bulb. I hold this life to be but the vestibule of the temple in which we are to work and joy forever when these few preliminaries which we know as mortal toils and trials are ended. But I believe that every talent and good we have here will have use and place in the fuller life, separated from this by so thin a veil that it is sometimes given to us to see the light gleaming through. For my own hope of admission to the 'Perfection which is continuous advance,' I trust humbly, gratefully and utterly in the Saviour of the world; the Christ who was tempted like as we are, the God-Man who is able to save unto the uttermost all who put their trust in him.

"'The solemn shadow of His cross
Is brighter than the sun.'

"This faith, transmitted to me by generations of godly ancestors, some of whom laid down their lives for it, I have carefully and severely tested by all the powers and lights I could bring to bear upon it, and stand to-day more firmly in it than ever before.

"In every event of daily life, the least even as the greatest, I seek to have but one rule, that set forth so simply and beautifully in Longfellow's Dedication Hymns:

"'And evermore beside him on the way
Th' unseen Christ shall move,
That he may lean upon His arm and say,
Dost Thou, dear Lord, approve?'

"This is, of course, ten times as much as you wanted me to write, but from it you can extract the germ of 'my creed.' Religion is so much to me, I would have it so much to others that I say too much when I trust myself to speak upon it."

Julia C. R. Dorr, that most delightful writer and noble woman, thus answers the question:

"You set me a rather hard task. If you had asked me for my 'religious views' when I was about eighteen, it would have been easier to respond, for at that time I had much more decided 'views' on most subjects than I have now. One grows humbler as one grows older, and much less sure of things.

"Two strains of blood meet in my spiritual as well as in my physical nature. French Catholicism is on one side, New England Unitarianism on the other. From the one I inherit a love of forms and symbols and stately ceremonials which make one-half of me sympathize with, and comprenend by intuition, much that the other half neither believes in nor understands. But I was 'brought up' in the straight school of New England orthodoxy and belong to the Congregational Church, the wing of it that interprets the old creeds broadly, and is not at all sure that it can fathom the depth of the Divine plans and mysteries, past, present or to come. But with all my heart I believe in God, the Father, our Father, and in Christ as the Way, the Truth and the Life. I cannot solve the problem of human sin and misery, nor draw the line of human accountability, nor explain how it is true that 'as a man soweth so shall he also reap.' But I do believe that all that perplexes us will one day be made clear; and meanwhile I am content to wait and to trust. In short I find in Whittier's 'Eternal Goodness,' at once my creed and my prayer."

The New England poet, Edna Dean Proctor, thus describes her Christian faith:

"No religious creed is possible to me but a belief in the boundless love of God for all his creatures, and in his intent and power to bring them all ultimately into harmony with Himself; in accordance with his perpetual invitation, 'Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy-laden, and I will give you rest;' a belief that grief and pain are, in our present state, a vital necessity of spiritual development, and that in this or other spheres punishment for wrong, though as inflexible in its workings as the principles of mathematics or the laws of light and shade, is yet but disciplinary and remedial. Such a view brings hope for this life and the life to come, gives us sympathy with every human being, and makes God indeed our Father. More and more as the world becomes enlightened, it tends on this broad, natural basis to unity of thought and worship."

Mary J. Holmes, the famous novelist, thus writes:

"If, instead of asking for my religious views you had asked what I believe, I think I should at once have commenced the Apostles' Creed, which I repeat in church so often.

"I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only son, our Lord.

"Born in New England and reared by strictly orthodox parents, I was taught that many things which most young people like and do were wicked, and although these rigid ideas have been softened down I am glad for the early training which has had a restraining influence on my whole life. I am a communicant of the Episcopal Church and know that a hand is leading me which will not let me fall if I cling to it with faith, as I am trying to do."

Louise Chandler Moulton lets others speak her words for her. She says:

"I can, perhaps, best answer your question concerning my religious faith by three quotations, with which I am in sympathy. The first is from Tennyson:

"'Oh yet we trust that somehow good
Will be the final goal of ill—
To pangs of nature, sins of will,
Defects of doubt, and taints of blood.

"'That nothing walks with aimless feet;
That no one life shall be destroyed,
Or cast as rubbish to the void,
When God hath made the pile complete.'

"The second is from Darwin, who was wont to say:

"'We cannot know the unknown, but we can do our duty.'

"And the third is from Stevenson, who writes of Fleeming Jenkin that he used to say:

"'A man must be either very wise or very vain to venture to break with any generally received idea of ethics.'

"These quotations will reveal to you that I reverence the moral laws founded on the teaching and experience of the past, that I am conscious of my own blindness as to the meaning and destiny of life, and that I trust only in that God who is love. LAURA C. HOLLOWAY.

The Dearth of Native Clergymen.

One cannot help being astonished at the number of leading clergymen in New York who have been brought over here from abroad to fill the pulpits of our fashionable churches. Take a few facts. In my boyhood the leading clergyman of the Episcopal denomination here was the Rev. Dr. Tyng, an American by birth; but now that place is held by an Englishman of recent immigration. The leading clergyman of the Presbyterian denomination was the Rev. Dr. Spring, American by birth; but now that place is held by the Rev. John Hall, a Belfast Irishman, discovered by Robert Bonner. The leading clergyman of the Congregationalist denomination was the Rev. Dr. Joseph Thompson, an American by birth; but now the same place is held by the Rev. Dr. Taylor, a Scotchman, brought here as Mr. Thompson's successor in the Tabernacle. The leading clergyman of the Unitarian Church was the Rev. Dr. Bellows, a born American; but now that place is held by the Rev. Robert Collyer, an Englishman who came over here some years ago. The leading clergyman of the Dutch Reformed Church was the Rev. Dr. Vermilyea, of old American stock; but now the place is held by the Rev. Dr. Ormiston, a large-headed Scotchman, who came to this country "under contract." If we go down from such famous men as those just named to the lesser lights of the New York pulpit, we find the change in the same direction to be still more remarkable. Almost every year clergymen are brought over from the British Isles for some of our churches.

Why this dearth of acceptable clergymen of American birth in these days, when they used to be so abundant in other times? There is no such scarcity of ability and eloquence in politics or the law as to compel us to import a supply from abroad; why should there be scarcity of talent in the pulpit? We have plenty of theological schools for training clergymen of all denominations, and several thousands of young theologians who ought to be well equipped must be turned out from them every year. The professors in these institutions cannot be less competent than those in similar institutions abroad, and it cannot be admitted that the pupils are any way inferior to those who are preparing for the clerical profession in Great Britain. There is something incomprehensible in this business. The salaries paid to the leading lights are large, and the clergy enjoy many perquisites which highly increase their emoluments. Besides the financial inducements the men of the cloth enjoy a social standing, with opportunities of winning fame, such as are not easily secured in other vocations.

Job Lott (tragically)—"Nothing—absolutely nothing—except my honest name."

Mrs. Lott—"H'm! With that, and the trifling assistance of the property you transferred to me three months ago, may be we can start again."—Puck.

THE PLATFORM.

The Republicans of Washoe, proud of the past and hopeful for the future, heartily endorse the platform and nominees of the National Republican Convention, as adopted at Chicago, and the Republican State Convention at Winnemucca, and pledge a rousing majority for Harrison and Morton and Protection, and Murphy and Bartine and the ticket nominated by this Convention. We demand legislation from both Government and State in regard to irrigation, and for the improvement of our natural waterways, as well as for the storage of water, whereby the natural advantages of this section can be improved to their fullest capacity. We demand the most rigid economy in State and County affairs, and the establishment of the State's expenses upon such a basis as will secure good government at the lowest rate of taxation. We maintain that a rate of seventy-five cents should be and is sufficient to provide revenue for the State Government.

In view of the rejection of the new Chinese treaty by the Mongolian Government we demand the total and absolute exclusion of all Chinese, and they must go.
